KAISER ALARMED AT CZAR'S SWEEP

Reinforcements Hurried to East Prussia to Stem Russians.

GRAND DUKE'S STROKE

Muscovites Nearing Koenigsberg, and Reported to be in Tabriz, Capital of Azerbaijan.

London, Jan. 30—Germany is alarmed at the new sweep of the Czar's armies upon Koenigsberg, Re-enforcements are being hurried into East Prussia and hasty preparations are being made to halt the advance of the Russian legions, now less than fifty-five miles from the fortress of Koenigsberg itself.

This was the news brought here today in dispatches from Amsterdam and Copenhagen. Amsterdam had unconfirmed rumors that several train loads of Germans were moving across Belgium from the Flanders battle front to re-enforce Von Hindenberg in the east. These regiments were part of the fresh forces that reached the fighting line only a few days ago in expectation of a new German offensive from Arras to the Belgian seacoast.

In military circles the Russian march upon Koenigsberg at the present moment is regarded as a master stroke, The Grand Duke, it is believed, seized his opportunity while Germany's forces were being withdrawn from Poland and sent into Austria, to begin a sudden drive toward the Gulf of Danzig. Capture of Koenigsberg, military experts point out, would result in early success for a second Russian army menacing the Prussian fortress of Thorn, and eventually force the retirement of the Germans before Warsaw.

Paris, Jan. 30—The Paris Matin today claimed to have received dispatches that Russian troops have occupied Tabriz, capital of the Persian province of Azerbaijan.

Dispatches from Petrograd do not maintain the capture of Tabriz, but state that the Russians have defeated the Turks and are close to the capital of Azerbaijan.

CLERGY STOPS A CONCERT.

It Can't be Given on Sunday, as 100 Tickets Are Sold.

York, Pa., Jan. 30.—Activity of the York Ministerial Association has checked the plan for a concert by the Spring Garden Band here, next Sunday, in violation of the old "Blue Laws." The concert was to have been given in the Orpheum Theatre, and more than 1,000 tickets had already been sold, it is stated.

Mayor Lafean, at the instance of the ministers, called the attention of the promoters of the project to the fact that a Sunday concert would be a violation of the law. Acting on legal advice, it is stated, the band had decided to hold the concert despite the city's warning, but Manager Nathan Appel, of the theatre, made this impossible by closing his show house to the concert.

KILLED BY FIRE ESCAPE

Victim Pinned to Ground When Cable Breaks.

Philadelphia, Jan 30—Harry Harding, 41 years old, No. 1731 North Willington street, died in the Jefferson Hospital last night as the result of a fire-escape falling on him earlier in the day at Seventh and Filbert streets.

The police of the Sixth distridt, who investigated the case, say that Harding was on the sidewalk looking into a store window, at No. 46 North Seventh stret, when the cable that held the fire-escape suspended between the second floor and the ground broke. The heavy iron ladder struck him in the back and pinned him to the pavement until passers-by went to his assistance.

NEWS OF THE DAY

A royal decree has been issued calling to the colors the Italian soldiers of the first and third category, born in 1888, and belonging to the field artillery, and also the Alpine troops, and the soldiers of the third category born in 1891, 1893, and 1894, belonging to the Alpine troops.

A brutal robbery of Mrs. Marie Panebianco, 73 years old, of New York, became known last night after detectives arrested Joe Ricciboni, a fruit dealer, and Rosario Conigiarro. The aged woman was choked and beaten unconscious and then bound to her stove, in which a small fire was burning.

The Austrian government has decided to organize a grain monopoly on similar lines to that established by Germany. The Austrian minister of agriculture announced yesterday that the army had procured supplies of grain sufficient to last until the end of August. Owing to the quantities of barley and maize now being taken for breadstuffs, according to advices from Vienna, there is a serious shortage in the supply of fodder. The Vienna city council and the press demanded that the Austrian government follow the example of Germany in confiscating all stocks of grain, flour and meal. Practically no grain is being offered on the markets in Vienna, Budapest, or Prague.

A Washington dispatch to the New York Sun states that Great Britain has given official notice that it would regard as an unneutral act the purchase and operation by this government of the interned German and Austrian vessels as proposed under the pending special purchase bill. A written statement to this effect is now in the possession of Secretary of State Bryan and has been in his hands for ten days.

The grand jury in New York yesterday returned two indictments charging murder in the first degree against Mrs. Ida Sniffen Walters, "love" wife of Lorlys Elton Rogers, alleging that she poisoned her 2 ½ year old son John and her eight-month old daughter Lorida, by the administration of bichloride of mercury poison. There are four counts in each indictment.

Another confident prediction that the country soon would enter upon a new era of enterprise and prosperity was voiced yesterday by President Wilson in a speech before the convention of the American Electric Railway Association. Speaking to business men and through them to the world of business generally, the President outlined what the Democratic Congress had tried to accomplish through its trust legislation. He declared that while a test period would be required to determine whether the correct remedy had been applied, he believed the "haze of interrogation points," which had checked enterprise for twenty years, had been cleared away.

A ship loaded with food for famine threatened poeple of Palestine and Syria will be dispatched from the United States soon by the provisional Zionist committee. It was announced yesterday that assurances of safe conduct for the vessel had been given the State Department by the British, French, and Turkish governments. Nathan Straus, of New York, has subscribed $50,000 to the fund.

The Jefferson County Trust and Savings Bank at Birmingham, Ala., closed its doors yesterday following a conference with the State Banking Board. The board is in charge. The bank's deposits December 1st were $1,638,021.21; cash resources, $228,241.44; bonds and stocks, $445,070.77; loans and discounts, $1,422,126.98; demand loans, $267,180.72.

The House Immigration Committee yesterday voted to reject the President's veto of the immigration bill, and decided to attempt to have the House next Thursday pass the bill over the veto, limiting debate to six hours. Committeemen Sabath, Goldfogle and Moore voted to sustain the veto.

The master bakers of Chicago decided at a meeting yesterday to advance the price of the 5-cent loaf of bread to 6 cents and the 10-cent loaves to 12 cents.

TAFT APPROVES WILSON'S VETO

Hopes Congress Will Not Pass Bill Over President's Veto.

BRINGS VISIT TO END.

In Final Lecture at Charlottesville He Discusses Responsibilities of Executive Power.

Charlottesville, Va. Jan. 30—When asked for his opinion of President Wilson's veto of the immigration bill, former President Taft declined to make any formal statement, but expressed his delight at the President's action. "I do not approve of the literacy test," he declared firmly, "and hope that Congress will not pass the measure over Wilson's veto."

Mr. Taft on Thursday paid a visit to 'Monticello" the home of Jefferson and was the luncheon guest of Professor Raleigh C. Minor, of the law school. After his lecture at night he attended a reception at Colonnade Club.

Yesterday morning Mr. Taft spoke to the students of the law school in Minor Hall, his subject being "Legal Ethics." Yesterday evening he was the dinner guest of Dr. Stephen H Watts, of the medical faculty.

Former President Taft concluded last night one of the most noteworthy series of lectures on the Barbour-Page Foundation ever given at the University of Virginia. After discussing the limitations of the executive power, so far as it is possible to limit such a power consistent with that discretion and promptness of action that are essential to preserve the interests of the public in time of emergency, or legislative neglect or inaction, he said.:

"There is little danger to the public weal from the tyranny of reckless and despotic character of a President who is not sustained by the people. The absence of popular support will certainly in two years withdraw from him the sympathetic action of at least one house of Congress, and by the control that that house has over appropriations, the executive arm can be paralyzed."

WARD S. SNYDER DIES.

Son of Pittsburgh Millionaire Succumbs to Poison After Killing Wife.

Houston, Texas, Jan. 30.—Ward S. Snyder, profligate son of a Pittsburgh millionaire, died here yesterday from a dose of poison taken after murdering his wife as she lay in her room in a local hospital.

The only explanation of the murder and suiicde obtainable was contained in a short ante-mortem statement by Snyder during a brief interval of consciousness. He declared he was temporarily insane Thursday when he slashed his beautiful wife to death. He told how he won her when she was Mrs. Arthur Beresford, obtained a divorce in Oklahoma, and married her in New Orleans a year ago.

She could not forget her three children, who lived with Beresford, however, Snyder declared. She constantly begged to return to them. Finally he consented to her going to Cheago for several months, and when she came to Houston to undergo an operation she brought along her youngest son.

In the meantime intense jealousy, aggravated by prolonged dissipation crazed him, Snyder said.

Mrs. Snyder was a musician who had attained country-wide reputation as a composer of Indian pieces. She was one of the most distinguished gradautes of the New England Conservatory of Music at Boston, becoming an opera singer and later a vaudeeville star.

The chief of police has sent for Mrs. Snyder's former husband, Arthur Beresford, the operatic basso and singing instructor of Chicago, Beresford is now on his way here.

Billy Sunday will be invited to visit Richmond.

SAUNDERS IN CONTEST.

Is Candidate for Chairmanship of Democratic Caucus.

Washington,D. C., Jan. 30.—Representative E. W. Saunders, of Virginia, and Representative M. D. Foster, of Illinois, are matched in a lively scrap for the chairmanship of the Democratic caucus of the Sixty-fourth congress. The office will be filled at the caucus to be held on February 4th, when Democratic candidates for the speakership and other House officers and members of the ways and means committee will be nominated. The caucus chairmanship is now held by Representative A. Mitchell Palmer.

The Democratic caucus chairmanship was held some years ago by Representative Hay, of Virginia. Dr. Foster in the present contest has the support of the liberal element in the party, as he has been always regarded as a progressive Democrat. Judge Saunders on the other hand is backed by men who regard him as one of the best presiding officers in the House.

WOMAN COMMENDED

Mrs. Van Metre, of Berryville, Nursed Wounded Federal Lieutenant

Montipelier, Vt., Jan. 30—A resolution was passed by the legislature yesterday commending Mrs. Bettie Van Metre, of Berryville, Va., for her care of Lieut. Henry E. Bedell, of Westfield, Vt., after he was wounded during the civil war.

Lieut. Bedell's leg was broken by a shell in a battle at Opequon, Va., and he was left by his regiment. Later, according to the story told to the legislature, he was picked up unconscious and carried to the home of a family whose Southern sympathies were so strong that he was left in an attic room for three days without proper care, until Mrs. Van Metre, then a wife of a Confederate, though only 20 years old, heard of his condition, and insisted on acting as nurse.

She watched over him, regardless of the criticisms of her friends, until he was able to be moved. She accompanied him on a troop train, and when Washington was reached, Lieut Bedell told Secretary Stanton of the War Department, how his life had been saved through her devoted care. The Secretary immediately ordered the release of Mrs. Van Metre's husband, the Confederate soldier, who, with one of her brothers, had been imprisoned at Fort Delaware.

Mr. Van Metre went with his wife and Lieut. Bedell to the latter's home in Westfield where they remained until the lieutenant had recovered fully from his wound, and Mr. Van Metre from the sufferings occasioned by his long imprisonment.

"As Mr. and Mrs. Van Metre are still living at their old home in Berryville," the former hale and hearty at the age of 83, it seems most fitting," says the resolution "that the State of Vermont should take some action in recognition of the unselfish devotion of this young Virginia girl of 50 years ago to one of the Green Mountain Boys."

BOY ELECTROCUTED.

Police Believe he Met Death While Stealing Wire.

Philadelphai, Jan. 30.—With a coil of copper wire lying by his side and wire cutting tools in his pocket, Thos. Tracy, 16 years old, was found lying dead near the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad tracks at Eleventh and Oregon avenue yesterday. Marks on the boy's hands and body showed that he had been electrocuted and the police believe he was stealing copper wire from the poles along the tracks when he met his death.

The body was found by John Tracy, brother of the boy and another companion. They told the police that they were in the neighborhood when three men, unknown to them, hurried up to them and told them where to find their brother. The men, they said, then disappeared.

NEGRO CONLEY MAKES DENIAL

Says He Never Confessed to Killing Mary Phagan, Factory Girl

WAS TO RECEIVE $100

Barber Testifies A Lawyer Wanted to Swear He Heard the Black Man Admit His Guilt

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 30.—James Conley, final witness for the State in the trial of Dan S. Lehon and O. C. Tedder, who represented the Burns Detective Agency and Arthur Thurman, a local lawyer, on charges of subornation of perjury in the Frank murder case, testified yesterday that he never had told another negro he killed a girl in the factory where Mary Phagan's body was found. His testimony was in support of the statement of the Rev. C. B. Ragsdale that his affidavit reflecting on Conley was false and that he had been paid $200 for signing it.

Conley, who was the chief witness against Leo M. Frank at his trial in 1913 and who subsequently was convicted as an accessory, occupied the stand only a short time today and was not cross-examined.

R. L. Barber, who made and later repudiated an affidavit supporting that of Ragsdale, testified that he visited Thurman's office April 22, 1914, and told the lawyer neither of the negroes he and Ragsdale had overheard talking was Conley.

"Mr. Thurman asked me if $100 wouldn't persuade me to swear one of them was," added the witness, "I replied that $100 wouldn't persuade me to swear to a lie."

Barber then told of another visit to the lawyer's office the next day, declaring Thurman finally agreed to pay him $100 to make an affidavit as to what he and the minister actually overheard. Tedder, he said, was present, at the conference. He explained, however, that the affidavits of both Ragsdale and himself were made later in the office of Luther Z. Rosser, one of Frank's attorneys.

"If you didn't believe one of the negroes was Conley why did you swear to it in your affdavit?" inquired Solicitor-General Dorsey, chief of the State's counsel.

"I didn't swear it," answered Barber.

"It is in the affidavit. How came it there?"

"I don't know. All that part is false."

W. W. Rogers, a former policeman and later employed by the Burns Detective Agency here, testified that Lehon sent him to the homes of Ragsdale and Barber on the evening of the day they had signed the affidavits to tell them not to talk to anybody unless it was a Burns agent, and to make the agent show a blue card before talking.

Replying to questions of defense attorneys, Ragsdale held to his direct testimony that he had negotiated with Thurman, Tedder and Lehon for the signing of the affidavits; that he had received $200 from Thurman in Tedder's preesnce for signing the document and that a man "with a voice like Lehon's" had telephoned him after he had received the money, to "sit steady in the boat, there's $10,000 for you if this thing goes through." Ragsdale declared he was unconscious a part of the time he was in the office of Frank's lawer to sign the affidavit.

Solicitor Dorsey introduced in evidence an affidavit by Tedder, signed after Ragsdale had repudiated his affidavit. Tedder stated he knew nothing of the affair until a few minutes before Ragsdale and Barber signed the affidavits, when he said he saw the men in Thurman's office. Tedder affidavit continued:

"Later the same day I saw Lehon and said: "Well, I understand the preacher made an affidavit,' to which Lehon replied: "Yes, Thurman got him to come through'."

Judge Hill overruled vigorous onjections by the defense and admitted in evidence a transcript of Lehon's testimony at the hearing of Frank's extraordinary motion for a new trial. According to the transcript, Lehon admitted that a week prior to the date of the Ragsdale-Barber affidavits he employed Tedder to get some witness in the Frank case and gave him $250 advance salary and $250 for expenses. At that time, Lehon testified he had not heard of Ragsdale and Barber.

WILL FIGHT TO A FINISH

Russia Will Make No Separate Peace With Austria-Hungary.

Petrograd, Jan. 30—Dismemberment of the Austro-Hungarian empire will be the penalty if that nation is defeated in the present war, it was stated plainly in an inspired article in the official Bourse Gazette yesterday. After referring to reports that Russia may conclude a separate peace with Austria or Hungary as being "rumors without any foundation," the Gazette continues:

"Peace may be made after complete and final victory over 'Germanism'. Only in that event can enduring tranquility prevail in Europe.

"This result could actually be obtained now. For its attainment it would be necessary to sacrifice 200,000 or 300,000 lives. Rather than bring about such slaughter, the government, fully assured of victory for our arms, thinks it better that the war be prolonged.

"A separate peace with Austria-Hungary, or even Hungary itself is practically impossible. To obtain real peace it will be necessary for the Hapsburg monarchy to asknowledge itself defeated, but even in this event considerations which would have to be effected would hardly be acceptable to it. The dual monarchy would not only have to consider our demands, but those of Servia and Montenegro also, as well as the demands of the Slavs within Austria-Hungary.

"Satisfaction to all these would mean complete dismemberment. Moreover, there is little ground for anticipating a separate peace with Hungary,which could only be obtained at the price of the detachment of the Crown of St. Stephen from Austria. The first fundamental condition of such a peace would be our demand and that of our allies that Hungary, being separated from Germany should not only abandon German influence, but should come into our camp. (Become an ally of Russia, England, and France.)

"It is hardly to suppose that the Hungarians would agree to such a demand which would force them to begin an armed struggle against Austria."

STRONG ATTACK ON COMMISSION PLAN

Members of Both Houses of Legislature Deal Titanic Blows.

A SPIRITED DEBATE.

Proceedings of General Assembly Closely Watched During Discussion of Tax Measures.

Richmond, Jan. 30.—Champions of the segregation plan dealt a series of terrific blows to the advocates of the tax commission plan in the House of Delegates yesterday. The segregation put forward Aubrek Weaver, chairman of the House Committee on Finance, and regarded as spokesman for the administration in the House. Delegate Weaver not only ended the segregation bill, but "punctured," as he put it, many of the arguments of the centralizationists.

These are the principles of the segregation plan now before the Legislature:

All taxes on intangible personal property, franchises, insurance companies and rolling stock are to be paid to the State.

All taxes on real estate and personal property other than intangibles are to be paid to the cities and counties.

The cities and counties are to make their own assessments, their own rates and collect their own taxes.

Other assessments are to be made by the State Auditor and the State Corporation Commission, but the rates are to be fixed by the Legislature, which rates are proposed in the pending companion segregation bills as follows:

On intangibles other than money, 70 cents on the $100.

On money, such as bank deposits, etc., 35 cents on the $100.

On railway rolling stock, $1.50 on the $100.

On life insurance premium incomes, $2.75.

On miscellaneous insurance premium incomes, $2.75.

On corporation franchise taxes, $1 on the $100.

According to these rates the State will receive, the State Auditor has calculated, over $7,500,000 a year and there will be a net annual gain to the cities and counties of over $400,00.

In the Senate Senator Buchanan of Smyth spoke for segregation and Senator Featherstone, of Lynchburg, for the tax commission form.

The Senate Finance Committee reported favorably a bill appropriating $55,000 to place several hundred additional convicts upon the State highways.

The Senate adopted a resolution calling upon the Virginia delegation in Congress to protest against the recent ruling of the War Department removing fishing nets in the Chesapeake Bay and tributaries nearer the shore.

WILL LOCATE PANDEMONIUM.

Chicago Savants Intimate the Infernal Regions May be Close to That City.

Savants at the University of Chicago are going to put hades on the map. They have announced that soon they will have located that region, and will be able to direct persons who have been told to go there. It is possible that it may be only a few steps down below Chicago, they have intimated. To accomplish this work there has been sunk from the basement of the new Rosenwald Geology Building a concrete pillar, six feet by ten feet, sixty feet into the earth to bedrock. The top of the pillar is covered with slate, and on it are placed three seismographs to measure earth vibrations. The seismographs will measure longitudinal and vertical vibrations, and by computations from these measurements the earth's composition may, be ascertained. Thus, the molten section, commonly termed "Hades," of this sphere can be located.

DR. GREEN DECLINES CALL

Will Continue to Occupy Chair of English Bible at the Seminary.

The professors and students of the Episcopal Theological Seminary, near this city, received today with great satisfaction the announcement that Dr. Berryman Green had determined to decline the call recently tendered him to the rectorship of St. James Episcopal Church in Richmond, and that he will remain at the Seminary.

The call to St. James Church was most flattering and was duly appreciated by Rev. Dr. Green; hence he gave it a careful consderation, after a consultation with the vestry of the Richmond Church and with Bishop Gibson.

Dr. Green has occupied the chair of the English Bible in the Theological Seminary during the past twelve years, having established the present course of study, which he has taught with such great ability.

The alumni and friends of the seminary everywhere will be congratulated upon the retention of Dr. Green by the institution.

Dr. Green is recognized as one of the most important and influential members of the faculty of the Virginia Theological Seminary, as well as one of the most learned and impressive teachers of that institution, which is the theological training school for the Epicopal clergy of both dioceses of Virginia.

It is understood that the vestry of St. James has no other clergyman in view as a possible rector; indeed, that no other name has been mentioned, since it had entertained high hopes that Dr. Green would be prevailed upon to accept the rectorate of the church.

COUNCIL MEETS TONIGHT.

Joint Committee Will Preesent Report on Civil Police Justice Bill.

A called meeting of the City Council will be held tonight for the purpose of considering the report of the joint committee on finance and general laws on a resolution requesting the city's representatives in the Legislature to use their efforts in having Alexandria exempted from the provisions of an act providing a civil police justice for this city. The committee, it is understood, will report in favor of the adoption of the resolution.

WAGAR APARTMENT.

All Completed Suites Except One Have Been Rented.

By referring to the Wagar Apartment notice elsewhere in the Gazette, it will be seen that all the completed apartments at "The Wagar" have been rented except one. This shows that these spacious and thoroughly equipped apartments have met with early appreciation, as they were not completed and put on the market until the early winter. When the exterior of The Wagar is improved and painted, and the grounds beautified as contemplated by Mr. Wagar in the spring, this apartment with its beautiful lobby, reception and banquet rooms, wide stairway and halls, and commodious apartments, will be a credit to our city. Mr. Wagar deserves the thanks of the community for restoring this historic old building and putting these convenient and moderately priced apartments on the market.

J. T. Preston, secretary and treasurer of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce, will represent that organization at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States which meets in Washington next week. Mr. Preston is one of the national councillors and will meet with that body on Tuesday afternoon at the New Willard.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McIntyre, of Norfolk, Va., will spend several weeks with Mayor and Mrs. R. A. McIntyre, at their home on the Alexandria Pike.

Mrs. W. E. Partlow and Miss Lillian Roofe, who have been visiting Mrs. Samuel Elliott, in south Lee street, have returned to their homes in Clifton Forge, Va.

Misses Rebecca and Merlin Harding have returned from a visit to their sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Shelton, in Washington.

Miss Barbara Campbell, of Charlestown, W. Va., is the guest of Miss Kitty Barrett, in Duke street.

Mr. Raymond Reeves is visiting relatives in this city.

VETERANS TO MAKE WILL

Mary Custis Lee And Seventeenth Virginia Chapters U. D. C. May Become Beneficiaries.

An important meeting of R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans will be held on Monday night at which time a committee will report on the question of the camp making its will, a novel idea among organizations. While the camp has a membership of 89 at present and the large majority are looking forward to spending many years here, it is felt good business policy requires that they consider the time when the organization will go out of existence. It is probable that the camp will leave its home on Prince street to the Mary Custis Lee and the 17th. Virginia Regiment chapters of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

SUE ROADS FOR $35,000

Damage Actions Started Against Southern And Old Dominion.

Three damage suits—one for $15,000 and tow for $10,000 each—were filed in the District Supreme Court of the District of Columbia yesterday as a result of the derailment of a Southern Railway yard engine on the tracks of the Washington and old Dominion Railway.

Jacob H. Berk, engineer of the engine, filed two suits, each for $10,000 one against the Southern and one against the Old Dominion. William H. Wade, the fireman filed suit jointly against the two companies for $15,000.

Both plaintiffs told of an agreement whereby the Old Dominion used Southern engines on its roads. They had charge of a heavy yard engine, they said, much too heavy for the track it was running on. Because of this and the faulty tracks, they declared, the engine was derailed and both were severely injured.

MEETING OF TRUSTEES.

The annual meeting of the board of trustees of the Alexandria Hospital will be held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce on Monday night, February 1st, at 8 o'clock. The annual election of officers will take place and the board will receive the reports of the Lady Board of Managers who have active charge of the affairs of the hospital.

DR. GREEN WILL REMAIN AT SEMINARY

The determination of Dr. Berryman Green to retain the chair of the English Bible at the Episcopal Theological Seminary, near this city, will be learned with satisfaction not only by all persons acquainted with the doctor, but by many also who know him by reputation. He has been a familiar figure in Alexandria for many years, and his departure for another field would have been sincerely regretted.

Dr. Green was for years rector of old Christ Church in Alexandria, and during his sojourn among us he made many friends and acquaintances outside those of his congregation, with all of whom he has ever been justly esteemed. Called to fill the chair of English-Bible subsequently at the seminary, the scholarly manner in which he filled that position has rendered him an essential to that institution.

There has been anxiety at the seminary since the call was sent to him by St. James Church in Richmond. The vestry as well as the congregatio and many other people in Richmond were anxious for him to see his way clear to accept the charge, but after consultation with the vestry of that church and with Bishop Gibson, Dr. Green, after having given the matter most careful thought, has concluded that his duties at the seminary are paramount at this time.

The call to the Richmond church was flattering, and was an earnest of the esteem in which Dr. Green is held in Virginia.

The contiguity of the Episcopal Theological Seminary to Alexandria and the frequent visits of all connected with the institution to this city necessarily cause such a commingling that the faculty as well as the students soon become acquainted with our people, Dr. Green was one of the most generally known, and Alexandria would have missed him greatly.

HOBSON AGAIN WARNS COUNTRY.

Representative Richmond Pearson Hobson, of Alabama, in a speech urging a greater navy, detailed to his colleagues yesterday the conditions which, he said, had brought this nation so close to conflict with Japan in 1913 that a drop of the hat was all that was necessary to start trouble. He declared it to be his conviction that peace was secured by the Wilson administration through assurances to Japan that "America would speedily retire from the Philippine Islands." Mr. Hobson also stated his belief that the United States' first inquiry as to the intentions of Japan in seizing Kiauchau and the islands in the Pacific Ocean would not be followed up by this administration, and that Japan as "a price of peace" would be given a free hand in China.

The Japanese Premier emphatically denies the assertions of Mr. Hobson.

The congressional career of Richmond Pearson Hobson will have reached its end on the fourth day of next March. He seems to have had but two ideas—both of them erroneous ones—since he has mingled with the lawmakers of the country. No one has ever seriously supposed that the Alabama Representative has been "on the inside" since, he has been in Congress, and that his incubus of Japanese aggressiveness has been superinduced by unhealthy musings on what might take place.

There was a saying among the old Romans—"the disasters we most dread never occur." Mr. Hobson might profit by this.

MOB DESCENDS ON FOREMEN

Riot Call Brings Squad of Police Who Make Arrests.

Philadelphia, Jan. 30.—Armed with revolvers, blackjacks and brass knuckles, a crowd of more than 40 men, alleged to be employees of the Belber Trunk and Suit Case Co., Mascher and Turner streets, waylaid several foremen of the plant as they were leaving a restaurant on Sixth street, above Girard avenue, last night, and caused a near-riot when they closed in on them and threatened their lives. In answer to a riot call, a squad of policemen from the Tenth district police station dispersed the crowd and placed two of the men under arrest.

WOULD KILL DOCTOR.

Glassworker Incensed Against Man Who Saved His Life.

Millville, N. J., Jan. 30.—Threatening to kill Dr. E. P. Rickert, a surgeon, because he saved his life, Samuel Pangburn, a glassworker, was arrested here Thursday.

A few weeks ago Pangburn attempted suicide by firing a bullet into his breast just above the heart. He was rushed to a hospital, where Dr. Rickert performed an operation, removing the bullet and saving the man's life.

Thursday Pangburn appeared at the physician's office flourishing a revolver and exclaiming he was going to shoot the doctor who wouldn't let him die. He was arrested and locked in jail.

MURDERER CAUGHT.

Portwood Shot And Killed Elijah Hoosier in Montgomery

Richmond, Jan 30—Governor Stuart has issued a requisition on the Governor of Georgia for the delivery of J. H. Portwood, now in jail in Atlanta, to Sheriff C. M. Camper, of Montgomery county.

It is charged that Portwood on the day of December 13, 1913, shot and mortally wounded Elijah Hoosier, of that county, and at once made his escape and has remained a fugitive since that time. He was located in Atlanta about a week ago.

The Governor also issued a requisition on the Governor of Maryland for the delivery of Ben Flynn, alias Harrison Flynn, now in the Maryland penitentiary, who is wanted to answer an indictment in the county of Fairfax, charging him with having stolen a horse. Sheriff James R. Allison will go after the man, whose term will expire early in the coming month.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Second Term Begins Next Monday —A. H. S. Loses to Warrenton .. in Hard-Fought Game.

With the intermediate examinations over, the high school will enter next Monday morning on the second half of the session 1914-1915 and the work of many pupils frm now until June will determine whether they are entitled to promotion or not. Reports covering all the work of the first term and including the examination grade and grand scholarship will be distributed Monday morning, and the scholarship grade on this report, which is found by averaging the grand average for the term with the examination grade, averaged with the scholarship grade at the end of the second term, must be over seventy-five in all of the major subjects for promotion.

The A. H. S. basketball team journeyed to Warrenton yesterday afternoon to play the Warrenton High School. The score was 25 to 10 in favor of the Warrenton boys, but the local High School team put up a stiff fight all the way. The men were accompanied by Coach Blanton. The High School played with its usual line-up.

The meeting of the A. H. S. Literary Society which was scheduled for tonight has been postponed until the sixth of February, because of the preliminary declamation contest which will be held at the school February 3rd. The declaimers who have been elected to the preliminary are hard at work on suitable declamations, and it is expected that the selection of a representative to the Richmond contest on the 20th from the preliminary candidates will be no easy task.

At the meeting of the society on the 6th final preparations will be made for the opening of a debater's contest for the debater's medal which will be awarded in June. The outline of the plan suggested for the contest is to have all who intend to compete for the medal divided off into pairs have one pair debate at each meeting of the Society, have the winners of the respective debates pitted against each other in a smaller number of pairs, and finally to narrow down the contest between only two, the winner of this final debate to be given the medal. Six meetings, or three months, has been taken as the time that the contest will run. The debates for this contest will be held in addition to the regular program of the Society and are expected to be of shorter duration.

A lunch counter was held from eleven until two o'clock during the examinations by members of the Girls Athletic Association. Quite a sum was cleared for their athletic treasury by the idea.

AT THE CHURCHES.

Tomorrow is Septuagesima Sunday in the Episcopal calendar and is the beginning of the pre-Lenten season of three Sundays, the other two being Exagesima and Quinquigesima, these three titles meaning seventy, sixty and fifty days before Easter, for the church now turns from the celebration of the birth of Christ and begins the contemplation of his Ascension, Death and Resurrection. At Christ Church, the morning service at 11 o'clock will include a setting of the Te Deum to a quadruple chant by Oakeley, the verses being divided into unison and harmony alternating between the male and female voices.

This unique arrangement was procured by the choir director, from St. Peter's Church, Eaton Square, London, one of the largest and most aristocratic parish churches in the city with a choir capable of rendering the most difficult settings of the Te Deum, yet on their great festival celebration annually on St. Peter's day, this arrangement of the Te Deum is always used.

At the offertory, a beautiful setting of the Psalmist's words "Like as the hart" will be used. This setting is by W. S. Hoyte, the organist of All Saints, Margaret St. London, one of the most prominent of the modern church musicians.

It begins with a tenor solo which will be sung by Mr. Irving Furr and contains a harmonized arrangement of the 8th. Gregorian Tone and is a remarkably effective composition. At the evening service at 7:30 a setting of the Cantate and Deus by Dr. Hodges, rector-emeritus of old St. Paul's, Baltimore, will be sung and it is interesting to know that a clergyman of the church has written such beautiful music. The Offertory anthem will be a setting by Vincent of the hymn, "Far from my heavenly home."

Mr. Morton, the rector being absent, the morning service will be in charge of the Rev. Dr. Kennedy, of the Theological Seminary, and the evening service will be conducted by Mr. Lee.

The Rev. Nelson P. Dame, D. D., geenral missioner of the Diocese of Virginia, will preach at St. Paul's Episcopal Church tomorrow morning at the 11 o'clock service.

The pulpit at Christ Episcopal Church will be occupied at the morning service tomorrow by the Rev. Paca Kennedy, of the Theological Seminary, and in the evening by Mr. Lewis, a member of the senior class of the seminary.

The Rev. John Lee Allison, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, will preach at both services tomorrow. In the evening his subject will be evangelical. There will be the usual Sunday School services at 9:30 o'clock and the men's Bible class at 10 o'clock in the Westminster Building.

Cottage prayer meeting will be held at 515 north Patrick street on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, under the auspices of the Second Baptist Church, and will be conducted by H. E. Webb, Sr.

The Rev. W. F. Watson, D .D, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will preach at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning on the subject "A Good Man Without Influence" and at 7:45 o'clock his subject will be "Why Not Decide it Now?"

"The Baptism of Jesus" will be the morning subject of the Rev. O. W. Triplett at the Second Baptist Church tomorrow morning, and "The Mother and the Cradle" his evening subject.

FRISKE JUBILEE SINGERS.

Did you see the Skiddy-Mer-Rink dances of the Southdown Sisters from "way down South" when they appeared with the Friske Jubilee Singers last year? They will appear again next Tuesday night accompanied this time by their uncle, Mr. McGinty. If you want to enjoy a good hearty laugh don't miss seeing them. In the second part Miss Cleopatra Johnsing, monologist, and the famous dancers, Mr. and Mrs. Castle-Black will also appear, our old friends. Honey Boise and Dew Dockstader, (known to Alexandrians as Messrs. Harry Caton and Walter Foster, who took that memorable automobile ride at last year's show, are working up another equally funny stunt, and the entertainment will close with the tragic cantata "De Grass Hopper." Secure your seats without delay at Warfield's.

ANNUAL MEETING.
